FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD!

On Saturday, the 5th of December, Mr. Thomas S. Venable, a citizen of Owensboro, then on a visit to Louisville, mysteriously disappeared, and from that day to the present time no traces of him have been discovered, although diligent search has been instituted.

Mr. Venable is a young man about twenty-two years of age, with red hair, air complexion, about five feet six or seven inches high—weighs about one hundred and twenty pounds, and apparently of fair and delicate constitution.

We, the undersigned, will pay $500 for any positive information of his whereabouts if alive, or if dead, for the recovery and delivery of his body.

More Coal Arrived—Decline in Prices—Operations of the Mayor.

The coal which was got out on the late rate continues to arrive, and yesterday the Eagle, with ten barges, containing 118,000 bushels; the Panther, with eight barges, containing 80,000 bushels, and the Star, with seven barges, containing 75,000 bushels, arrived, making the receipts twenty-five barges, containing 265,000 bushels of coal, the greater portion of which is destined for points below here. In the course of a few days large quantities of coal are expected to arrive, and by the close of the present week the whole 610,000 bushels which Pittsburg for this point will reach its destination, and then we look for a further decline in prices. Yesterday the price of coal declined materially. In morning it was retailing at $8 per load, but in the afternoon the price had declined to $8 per load, or 32 cents per bushel. Pomeroy was selling at 28 cents, or $7 per load, delivered.

The Mayor arrived from Pittsburg Monday night, having made an purchase at that point, owing to the high price of coal and the great risks in bringing it to this place. Yesterday he entered the market here, and numerous were the offers made to him. About noon he succeeded in closing a contract with two of our largest merchants for 200,000 bushels of coal, to be delivered as wanted until the 1st of April, at 34 cents per bushel, or $8 per load. At the time the Mayor's contract was made, coal was retailing at 40 cents per bushel, and directly afterwards the prices, from some cause, dropped to 32 cents per bushel, a decline of 8 cents per bushel in one day. The Mayor is prepared now, and will be until the 1st of April, to deliver coal to our citizens at 34 cents per bushel.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS.—Tuesday, Dec. 22.—The prisoner's bench this morning was well filled. The following business was disposed of:

Edward Warner, charged with assaulting Ellen, slave of Wm. Garvin. Continued until this morning, and the party remained.

Martin Pendleton, charged with killing Patrick Welch. Bail in $1,500 to answer in the circuit court the charge of manslaughter.

Fred. Repner, charged with abusing his mother and sister. Discharged for this time with the promise of twelve months in the workhouse if he is ever guilty of the offense again.

Alexander Howell, charged with cutting John Mullin in sudden heat and passion, without previous malice. After hearing the testimony, the case was presented as a felony. Bail in $400 to answer in the circuit court.

Margaret McAlpin, assaulting Ann McMickin. Mrs. McMickin, on oath, states that she never struck a woman in her life. Witnesses sent before the grand jury, and McMickin's own bond to answer an indictment in this court.

Brooke Grant alias Wm. White, suspected felon. Bail in $300 for one year.

BURGLARS ABOUT—ANOTHER HOUSE ROBBED.—Our city is still infested with a gang of outlaws and thieves who continue to carry on their depredations. At a late hour Monday night, or rather an early on yesterday morning, some thief or thieves entered the house of Mr. Dix, situated on Chestnut street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, and robbed it of about one hundred dollars worth of property, consisting of a watch and other articles.

Our old friend Len. Rogers, late the popular proprietor of the saloon attached to the Louisville theater, has sold out that establishment and connected himself with Jimmie Cornell, of the famous Pearl Saloon, and the two, under the style of Rogers & Cornell, will carry on the Pearl. They will always keep on hand the very choicest liquors, best of tobacco and cigars with which to supply their customers.

THE EXEMPTION BUSINESS TO BE CONTINUED UNTIL THE 5TH OF JANUARY.—Provost Marshal Berry, of the Board of Enrollment of the Sixth District, has received a dispatch directing him to proceed with the examination of persons claiming exemption from the draft, until the 5th day of January.

GENERAL GRANT.—Major General U. S. Grant, the commander of the army of the Cumberland, and the hero of Vicksburg, arrived in the city yesterday on the train from Nashville. He is stopping at the Galt House.

J. P. Francis, who was arrested a few days since, had an examination yesterday. The testimony indicated that Francis was a spy, and he was committed to the military prison for a further hearing.

The lady managers of the fair for the benefit of the poor are requested to meet in the neighborhood of Felicians, conscripting all the citizens in that neighborhood.

For Cincinnati and Chicago papers we are indebted to W. H. Ehrlich, the popular news dealer at the corner of Third and Main streets.

J. H. Lester, the attentive messenger of Adams Express company, has our thanks for Eastern papers.

The Legislature has adjourned till January 5th.

A NOBLE CHARITY—SUMPTUOUS DINNER AT OLD FELLOWS' HALL—ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY CHILDREN PRESENT—PARENTS PARTICIPATE—CHILDREN CLOTHED AND FEDED—EFFORTS OF THE REV. EDWARD LIVINGSTON WELLS IN BEHALF OF THE POOR—LIBERTY OF CITIZENS, ETC., ETC.—Yesterday afternoon we had the pleasure of witnessing one of those exhibitions of Christian benevolence in the city, the good effects of which cannot be over-estimated. At Old Fellows' Hall, the Rev. Edward Livingston Wells, Rector of Calvary church, had gathered from that portion of the city known as the "Point," one hundred and fifty children, who sat down to a sumptuous dinner, prepared by the members of his congregation. Mr. Wells has established for these poor children a Sabbath school and a day school, and is doing all in his power to rescue them from want, ignorance and degradation. Of the number of children attending the schools, and who were present yesterday at the hall, about fifty have lost their fathers in the war. Many are the victims of squalid poverty, and others the inheritors of names known in the criminal records of the State; but all have a friend in the reverend gentleman we have named, and certainly the happy throng which filled Old Fellows' Hall yesterday must have found ample compensation for the labor of love and charity in which the reverend gentleman and his associates are engaged. Besides the bountiful supplies sent in by members of the congregation of Calvary church, liberal contributions were received from Messrs. Butterworth, Kiel, Bush, Stell, Abramson, Settler, Hartman, Kehoe, Mitchell, Love and Hanna, butchers; groceries from Messrs. Balston, Lanham, Neck, Wicks & Co., Tait & Ellis, and candles from Messrs. Bonie, Schultz, Bradus and Mellich.

After singing a song, and being bountifully supplied with candies, meats and delicacies for absent parents, brothers and sisters, the little fellows, with countenances beaming with happiness, separated. That the remembrance of the dinner and pleasant surroundings by these poor children will have a beneficial effect cannot be doubted; and that the Rev. Mr. Wells may be further encouraged to aid this unfortunate class of people by liberal charities from the rich, must be the prayer of every truly benevolent citizen.

RESTRICTION OF TRADE—MEETINGS TO-DAY AND TO-NIGHT.—The Legislative committee, of which Mr. Delph is chairman, will meet at the Connell Chamber to-day at 3 o'clock P.M., and at the Circuit Court room to-night, where testimony will be taken bearing upon the subject of the restrictions upon the trade of Louisville. A general attendance of our business men is requested. We understand that all probability meetings of the committee will continue from day to day until their business is completed. Meetings, both day and night, are required in order to accommodate such of the members of the committee as cannot attend both. We trust that no business man of Louisville will fail to be present both to-day and to-night, if for no other purpose than to hear the testimony that may be given by the officers of the Board of Trade.

THE CITY COUNCIL—OUR POLICE FORCE.—For some time past our city has been infested with a gang of thieves and midnight assassins who have committed all kinds of depredations upon our citizens, and in nearly every instance have they been captured on account of the small number of our city police, whose numbers are wholly inadequate to the duties which involve upon them. The city of Louisville covers a large extent of country, stretching some five miles in length, with a width of nearly two miles, and to guard this great extent we have but forty night policemen. The number is entirely too small, and the council at its meeting, which takes place to-night, should take some measure to so increase the police force of Louisville, that the citizens may be protected in their lives and property from these midnight robbers and assassins.

HIGH PRICED TOBACCO.—Messrs. Spratt & Co. sold yesterday a hoghead of new tobacco at the very handsome price of $60 per one hundred pounds. It was raised by Mr. Marcellus Mansfield, of McCracken county, and was purchased by our handsome young friend Mr. David Muselman, of this city. We are very much mistaken if prices like this do not open the eyes of the planters in McCracken, Ballard and Graves to the importance of sending their tobacco to this market, the amount of which is entirely too small, and the council at its meeting, which takes place to-night, should take some measure to so increase the police force of Louisville, that the citizens may be protected in their lives and property from these midnight robbers and assassins.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—Mr. Cannon presented a petition from Congress in favor of exempting clergymen from the draft.

Mr. Sumner gave notice of a bill for the revision and codification of the Statutes of the United States.

Mr. Pomeroy gave notice of a bill relative to the assumption of the indebtedness of Kansas.

Mr. Anthony moved that a select committee of nine members on the Pacific railroad be appointed. Agreed to.

He now submitted joint resolution for the relief of the State of Wisconsin.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 22.—The Great Sanitary Fair opened yesterday, and is a complete success. The most ample arrangements have been made by the Chairman of the Committee on the Reception of Visitors to care for all persons who may visit the fair during the coming two weeks. An enormous number of persons daily come over three thousand persons daily, and should more come they will be provided for on some of the first-class steamers now lying at the landing.

A messenger from the Governor and Legislature of Kentucky left Frankfort yesterday for Washington, to request the President to postpone the draft until corrections are made in the enrollment papers.

Gen. Kimball, recently in command at Little Rock, passed through Indianapolis yesterday for Washington. He represents immense Union meetings being held in all portions of the country. He has been a strong advocate of the Administration for the suppression of the rebellion, and recommending a State Convention to be called for reorganizing a State Government without slavery.

There is nothing later from Knoxville.

(Special to the Herald.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The adjourned caucus of the Democratic party, which met to-night transacted no important business.

Gen. Anger made a trip to-day on the railroad to the forks of Bull Run for the purpose of inspecting the road and providing against raids by the enemy. The bridges were found to be in good condition, and measures have been adopted to do what possible prevent another descent on the line within this district.

Guerillas and small squads of rebel cavalry still infest the country beyond Manassas, and depredate. Government property beyond that point and the Rappahannock are of frequent occurrence.

No credence is given here to the dispatch stating that Longstreet's force had been surrounded and Longstreet killed. The General-in-Chief has received no communication of such a statement, although in direct communication with Gen. Foster.

(Special to the Tribune.)

HEADQUARTERS OF POTOMAC, Dec. 21.—At the present time the army of the Potomac is in the same position that it has been since it recrossed the Rapidan. An order to move for better quarters is expected, especially at the roads, which a few days ago appeared almost impossible, are now fixed.

As far as we can judge the rebels have not changed their position.

Our men have made for themselves most comfortable quarters, impervious to frost and snow.

It was stated in a dispatch Saturday that rebel cavalry had destroyed two bridges over Bull Run. This is not exactly so. They appeared in some force, attacked our guard, and set fire to one bridge, and measures have been adopted to do what possible prevent another descent on the line within this district.

H. Moore, of Pennsylvania; George W. Pease, of Massachusetts; M. M. Moore, of New Hampshire; Garrett Davis, of Kentucky, and Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana.

They also appointed the following committee to arrange plans for military action in the House during the present session:

James D. Dixson, of Pennsylvania; Pendleton, of Ohio; Mallory, of Kentucky; Brooks, of New York; and Robbins, of Illinois.

Advices from the front to-night state that the army is making its comfortable winter quarters.
